BYPASS BATTLE FRONT SPLITS TOWN

CAMPAIGNERS in Arundel who are opposed to plans to build an A27 bypass of the town were at loggerheads with the area's MP this week. Arundel and South Downs

MP Nick Herbert has struck out at the organisers of a public meeting to discuss the plans, claiming it was 'deliberately' made to be a 'one-sided' night. However, campaigners say this is nonsense and are calling for a more open debate into all the options to improve the area's traffic woes. ■ Turn to page 3 to read the full report.
